

G. C. POWNING, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1878.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The Pacheco-Wiggington case is still undecided.

Kearney and his friends are holding spirited meetings in Sacramento, endorsing or condemning Legislative bills.

An asylum for women and children at Tien Isai, China, has been burned, and over 2,000 persons perished.

Nine million people are reported destitute in northern China. Foreign relief is asked.

Greece now takes a hand in kicking Turkey. She has sent an army of 10,000 regulars and many thousand volunteers to cross the frontier.

The Legislative Committee appointed to investigate the labor riots in San Francisco is at work.

J. Madison Wells has surrendered himself to the Sheriff. He will give bail for his appearance when wanted.

All the Powers have accepted Count Andrassy's proposal for a conference to be held in Vienna.

The Louisiana Returning Board desire to have their case transferred to the U. S. Circuit Court.

Hon. B. F. Wade is slowly recovering from his illness.

It is generally believed that the Senate will dispose of the silver bill this week.

THE COMSTOCK.

(Virginia Chronicle, 18th.)

The main point of interest at present is the 1900 level of the Ophir mine. If the ore body should prove extensive, the value of the leading stocks would be enormously increased. If it should prove otherwise, we might expect another season of depression not unlike that from which we emerged a few months ago. The uncertainty of stock operators is almost painful to behold. There is not one of them that has a positive opinion to express of the value of the Ophir ore-field. Luckily, its extent in depth, length and width is about to be tested by a winze and crosscuts. The crosscuts will soon be commenced, and the winze, last Saturday (the date of Colonel Fair's last weekly letter) was already down 12 feet. The ground in the bottom being hard, and consequently good blasting, the progress in future should be fully 2½ feet per day. The winze is expected to cut the ore vein at a depth of between 60 and 70 feet. If it cuts in less than 60 feet, the fact will be accepted as an indication that the ore widens in depth, as few will admit the probability of the vein's flattening out to any extent in 50 or 60 feet; and the effect on the stock will be most flattering. If, on the contrary, the vein should not be cut in 70 feet, the effect will be most disastrous. In any case, the shares of this and the neighboring mines are now a good gamble, with the chances in favor of an appreciation.

In the Con. Virginia mine the work of development of the 1750 level is being pushed energetically. A winze was started last Saturday at a point about 70 feet east of the ore body, and the raise, at that date, was already up 24 feet, the ore decreasing in quality in height. This would go to show that the richest portion of the new ore body will be found in depth.

The Savage pump was started up permanently at 9 o'clock yesterday evening, and with the help of the Hale & Norcross pump the submerged mines will soon be rid of water.

THE HOTTEST PLACE.—The south drift from the foot of the incline on the 1900 level of the Ophir is the hottest place on the lead outside of the melting pots at the Consolidated Virginia assay office.

JOBS PEAK is 11,000 feet high. Round Top is higher yet, and from its summit can be seen Mount Diablo, Stanislaus Peak, Mount Shasta, and, in all, seven noted peaks in various directions.

AT THE early opening of Spring a preliminary survey will be made between Elko and Tuscarora, connecting with Rock Creek with a view to building a first-class road running west of Lone Mountain.

THE upraise in the new ore body of the Con. Virginia is now raised and lifted to the height of 24 feet above this (1750) level. The ore gradually diminishes in value as it rises.

By cutting holes through the ice any amount of trout may be caught at Silver Lake; also, in several streams of the region.

The deepest mine on the Comstock is the Imperial, in which they are down 2,400 feet.

A gentleman just from the "cow counties" of California informs us that the prospects for a full harvest were never better in the history of the State. The late rain, which was general throughout the agricultural portion, came just at the right time, the grain having just been put in the ground in most places, and it will now sprout up rapidly and vigorously—ensuring a huge crop if not another drop of rain falls—the ground being thoroughly saturated to a considerable depth. Prosperity is dawning upon them in a remarkable degree. More mortgages were lifted last year than any year before, and as a natural consequence the banks are full of money, which is loaned on farming land at ten per cent. per annum. But outside of this class of real estate it is hard to get money at any price, for the labor agitation now convulsing portions of the State has made capital very timid, on everything except what is not liable to be affected by mob law. In San Francisco the depression is fearful. Never before have they had such dull times. Money seems to be almost unknown in the channels of trade. Depression sits like a nightmare on all enterprises, while anything new is viewed with distrust. This state of affairs cannot last much longer without serious calamity befalling many business men. If it lays in the power of Congress or of the California Legislature to help dispel this depression, the lawmakers cannot do better than to turn their entire attention to it at once. The farmer's life is most independent and reliable after all.

BATTERMAN.

The Elko Post favors Batterman as the Republican nominee for Governor. We might add that the present outlook of affairs seems to point to that gentleman's success. We copy from the Post:

Without disparagement to any Republican who has been spoken of for Governor, we believe we can safely say that there is one man who stands well with the people of this county—a gentleman of unquestioned integrity, of great executive ability, an unflinching Republican—one whom the people would cordially support. We allude to General C. C. Batterman, the present efficient Warden of the State Prison. We say he stands well with the Republicans of Elko county, and we make the assertion from personal knowledge of public sentiment in that respect. Other candidates may be just as strong, but we do not know it. As things look now, we are led to believe that if General Batterman has as much strength proportionately in other portions of the State as he has in this county—the recognized Bradley stronghold—he is the man who can send the present incumbent into forced retirement easier than any one in the State.

A decision has been rendered by the Supreme Court of this State in the case of O. W. Ward, respondent, against the Carson River Wood Company and D. R. Hawkins, appellants. The decision of the Court is, that "the judgment of the District Court must be reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial, unless the respondent elects, within fifteen days after the filing of the remittitur herein, to remit the excess of the judgment over the sum of two dollars per cord, (that being the amount the defendant admits to be the value of the wood at the place of conversion), and all costs incurred by appellants in this appeal, in which event the judgment, as modified by such remission, will be affirmed." The opinion is by Chief Justice Hawley, and the concurrence of his associates is unanimous.

SUTRO TUNNEL ADVANCING.—It is asserted that the blasts fired in the header of the Sutro tunnel can be heard on the 1700 level of the Savage mine. This would seem to indicate that the face of the header is much nearer the Savage than is generally supposed—probably not more than 300 feet away, as the sound must travel across the strata of the lode.

The gross yield of the mines situated in Elko County for the quarter ending December 31st, 1877, amounted to the sum of $433,936 94, the State and County tax upon which was $6,512 58, the largest amount ever realized from such sources in the county, since its organization.

We learn that the Grand Prize company, through its attorneys, Wines & Dorsey of this place, has entered suit to quiet title, against the Grand Prize West.

The Republicans of Paradise Valley express a preference for John H. Kinkead for Governor.

THE CROSS TRIUMPHANT!

CRESCENT VANQUISHED!

THE LION ROARING!

THE ARMISTICE SIGNED!

Great Rejoicing

ADRIANOPLE, Feb. 3.—Evening.—The six bases of peace accepted by the Porte, and the terms of the armistice have just been signed by the Grand Duke Nicholas, and Server and Namyk Pashas. An order suspending hostilities will be dispatched forthwith to all corps and detachments, and also to the army in Asia Minor. The Turks will evacuate all the Danubian fortresses, and Erzeroum.

General Zimmerman's forces have advanced within fifteen miles of Varna, and cut the Schumla railway and telegraph lines.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 3.—The Porte has received the following dispatch from Server Pasha:

"ADRIANOPLE, Jan. 31.—The peace preliminaries and armistice were signed to-day."

There is great satisfaction here at the settlement of peace preliminaries. Following are the conditions of the protocol:

First—The election of Bulgaria into a principality.

Second—A war indemnity or territory in compensation.

Third—The independence of Roumania, Servia and Montenegro, with increase of territory for each.

Fourth—Reforms in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Fifth—An ulterior understanding between the Sultan and the Czar, regarding the Dardanelles.

Sixth—Evacuation of the Danubian fortresses and Erzeroum.

Hobart Pasha has received orders to hold the fleet in readiness to sail, it is believed for the Piræus. Mehmet Ali Pasha has been appointed to the command of the troops in Crete and Adassides. A Christian has been appointed Governor of the Island.

PARIS, Feb. 4.—A special from Vienna announces that all the powers have accepted Count Andrassy's proposal for a conference, which will meet in Vienna.

LAVARETTA, Malta, Feb. 4.—The iron-clad Achilles and a steam frigate, which has been refitting here, have returned to Besika Bay. The Devastation will follow.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—A Bucharest correspondent telegraphs that in consequence of the armistice the garrison at Widdin has been ordered from Constantinople to surrender their arms, after which they will be quartered in the neighboring villages.

A Copenhagen dispatch states that every preparation is being made to close the Sound and approaches to Copenhagen with torpedoes in 24 hours if necessary.

A Pera correspondent says: It is reported that Austria is about to present a note refusing to sanction the conditions of peace, which would imperil the existence of Turkey.

BERLIN, Feb. 4.—The Vossische Zeitung's Bucharest correspondent says he has had an interview with Ignatieff, who informed him that Russia wished to open the Dardanelles only to Turkey and herself, and insisted upon the cession of Armenia, as she knew an endeavor to obtain a money indemnity would be hopeless.

LONDON, February 4.—A Berlin correspondent says Russia formally acquainted Roumania of her intention to annex Bessarabia, giving the Dobrukscha in exchange.

A Vienna correspondent states that Roumania has addressed a note to the Powers, claiming the right, as a belligerent, to participate in the Conference.

PESTH, February 4.—The papers announce that an Austrian army corps has been mobilized and concentrated at Vereth.

A special from Vienna states that the Austrian Ministry which recently resigned, resume office.

Austria will not insist on the conference assembly here. Russia suggests Mannheim, Brussels or Geneva. There is a very despondent feeling here, as it is evident that Germany is favoring Russia.

LONDON, February 3.—A startling rumor was current last night among the best informed officers of the army and navy, which, although couched in ambiguous language, foreshadows what may prove one of the greatest events in the whole history of the Eastern question. All of England's efforts are to be primarily directed, it is asserted, to prevent the Turkish fleet from falling into the hands of Russia as part of the war indemnity, the armistice signed at Adrianople being vague enough on this point to admit of almost any construction. The invasion of Turkey by the Greeks affords a pretext for the dispatch of a fleet from the Black sea, and it is asserted that the vessels will be sent to the Mediterranean at once. Then comes a grand coup. As soon as the Turkish fleet emerges from the Dardanelles it will be seized by British iron clads and conveyed to Malta. In brief, the high-handed proceedings at Copenhagen in 1801 will find a parallel. Indeed, one officer gave expression to his own ideas by saying: "No shots will be fired." This may be taken to mean that Hobart Pasha will have special instructions from the Porte as to his conduct, when the British fleet makes its appearance, without violating the neutrality of the straits. England's naval supremacy would then remain unquestioned. What Germany, Italy and Russia would think of such an act can easily be guessed.

THE Elko correspondent of the Carson Tribune says Elko county is racked from center to circumference over Governor Bradley's third term aspirations. About one half of the Democratic party in that county say they "won't have it," that his Excellency has had glory enough and must step down and out. Hagerman, of Reno, is most talked of in that section for the nomination.

THE Grand Prize on January 31st shipped $31,019 49, making total amount of bullion shipped in January, $237,763 45. Pulp assays of sulphuret ore averaged during the month $201 17 per ton. Everything in and around the mine and mills going ahead all right.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in Oakland, Cal., to form a union of Republicans and Democrats to nominate a union ticket for city offices, which are soon to be filled there.

THE hoisting works of the Real de Monte mine, at Aurora, were recently blown down by a heavy gale that swept through that region.

A NEW morning paper will shortly be started in Sacramento. Messrs. Kergan and Siskler, formerly of the Record, are the proprietors.

A PROTEST to the application for patent of the Grand Prize West, will be filed in the course of a few days, by the Grand Prize Company.

THE Richmond Company have located 23 acres of mining ground east of Ruby Hill.

WHO OWNS GREAT BRITAIN?

Five men own one-fourth of Scotland. One duke owns 96,000 acres in Derbyshire, besides vast estates in other parts of England and Ireland. Another, with estates all over the United Kingdom, has 40,000 acres in Sussex and 300,000 acres in Scotland. This nobleman's park is nineteen miles in circumference. Another Duke has estates which the highroad divided for twenty-three miles. A marquis there is who can ride a hundred miles upon his own land. There is a duke who owns almost an entire county stretching from sea to sea. An earl draws $200,000 every year from his estates in Lancashire. A duke regularly invests $80,000 a year in buying up lands adjoining his already enormous estates. A marquis enjoys $1,000,000 a year from land. An earl lately died leaving to his heirs $1,000,000, sterling and $160,000 a year income from land. The income from land derived by one ducal family is $1,600,000, which is increasing every year by the falling of leases. One hundred and fifty persons own half England, seventy-five persons own half Scotland, thirty-five persons own half Ireland; and all the lands of England, Scotland, Wales and Ireland are owned by less than 60,000 persons.

ONLY a few short months will elapse until the time for holding primaries and the State and county conventions shall arrive, and it is eminently proper that the people should know who will probably come before them for their endorsement or rejection, for both State and county offices. There is no danger that discussion of individual claims—of the moral worth, social and political standing, business capacity, integrity and ability of any candidate—will inure to the injury or disadvantage of the commonwealth. It is the duty, therefore, of the newspapers of the State to make public the names of all such aspirants, and this is being very generally done by our State exchanges.—Elko Post.

There are 800 coal-burners employed in the Eureka trade, 90 per cent. of whom are foreigners and about 50 per cent. of the latter are American citizens. With a few exceptions this force is in the employ of less than a dozen firms, two-thirds of whom are of foreign birth. The average distance that the coal is hauled by teams is 35 miles, ten companies owning the outfits. There has been consumed within the last five years 6,000,000 bushels of charcoal, and it is estimated that there is timber enough standing, within a radius of sixty miles, to produce 25,000,000 bushels. The regulation standard allows 33 bushels of coal to one cord of nut pine wood, but this is not correct, actual experience proving that it will not produce more than 28. It will be seen that there is not quite a million cords of wood in the growth of timber on the hills and mountains, and probably one-third of this is not available. At the present rate of consumption our supply will be exhausted in eight years, allowing that every stick of growing timber can be utilized. At the price ruling in Eureka (25 cents per bushel), the article remaining to be marketed in the future has a value of $6,000,000. If the mines of Eureka District remain permanent, and do not give a larger output of ore than at present, we shall be forced to look to the dense timber growths of the Sierra Nevadas for our future supply.—Eureka Sentinel.

A DEMOCRAT of Paradise Valley writes to the Silver State as follows:

If the western part of the State put up all the candidates for gubernatorial honors, we are willing, provided the Convention will give Humboldt county the privilege of nominating an old wheel horse to work with Hagerman. We ask for Lieutenant Governor, and will name for the place, Judge G. G. Berry, a gentleman that will be an honor to the position and to the Democratic party.
